TIM: Giovanni Ronca joins the Top Management of the Company. As of 17 June 2019, he will be appointed new Chief Financial Officer

Turin, 6 May 2019

TIM announces that as of 7 May 2019 Giovanni Ronca joins the Group reporting directly to the Chief Executive Officer Luigi Gubitosi, to become, as of 17 June 2019, the new Chief Financial Officer in lieu of Piergiorgio Peluso.

Piergiorgio Peluso, as of 17 June, will report directly to the Chief Executive Officer managing the Group's strategic projects and extraordinary operations.

Giovanni Ronca was co-Head of UniCredit commercial bank network in Italy and member of the executive committee of the bank until 31 March 2019. From 2014 to 2016 Ronca was based in New York as Head of UniCredit activities for North and South America. Previously he was Managing Director of the Corporate & Investment Banking Italy Network and Head of the Corporate Banking for the region.

Ronca started his career in 1996 at Exor as financial analyst and subsequently moved to Fiat Group where he held different positions in the financial department of the Group, both in Italy and the United States. From 2004 to 2007 he was member of the team led by the CEO Sergio Marchionne, that relaunched the Fiat Group.

Giovanni Ronca is graduated in Economics at the University of Turin.

Giovanni Ronca doesn't own Telecom Italia shares.

The CV is attached.
